Semester-wise Result Analysis

First Semester – Winter 2022

The bar graph indicates that out of 56 students appeared, 44 students passed, resulting in a 78.50% pass percentage. The performance reflects a satisfactory outcome and served as a baseline for further academic planning.

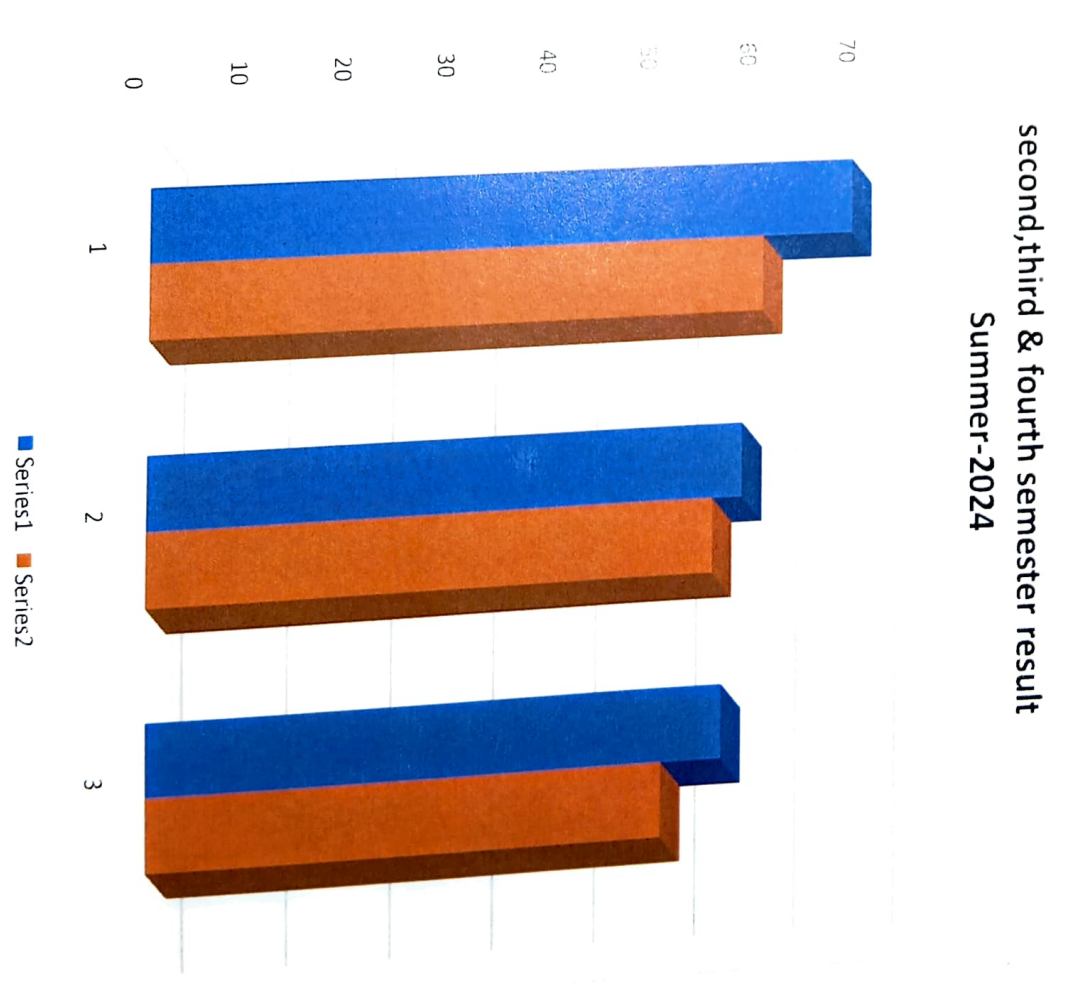

First semester result Winter-2022

First & Second Semester – Summer 2023

In Summer 2023, both semesters showed moderate performance with a visible gap between appeared and passed students. Though pass percentages were acceptable, the results indicated the need for enhanced academic support for slow learners.

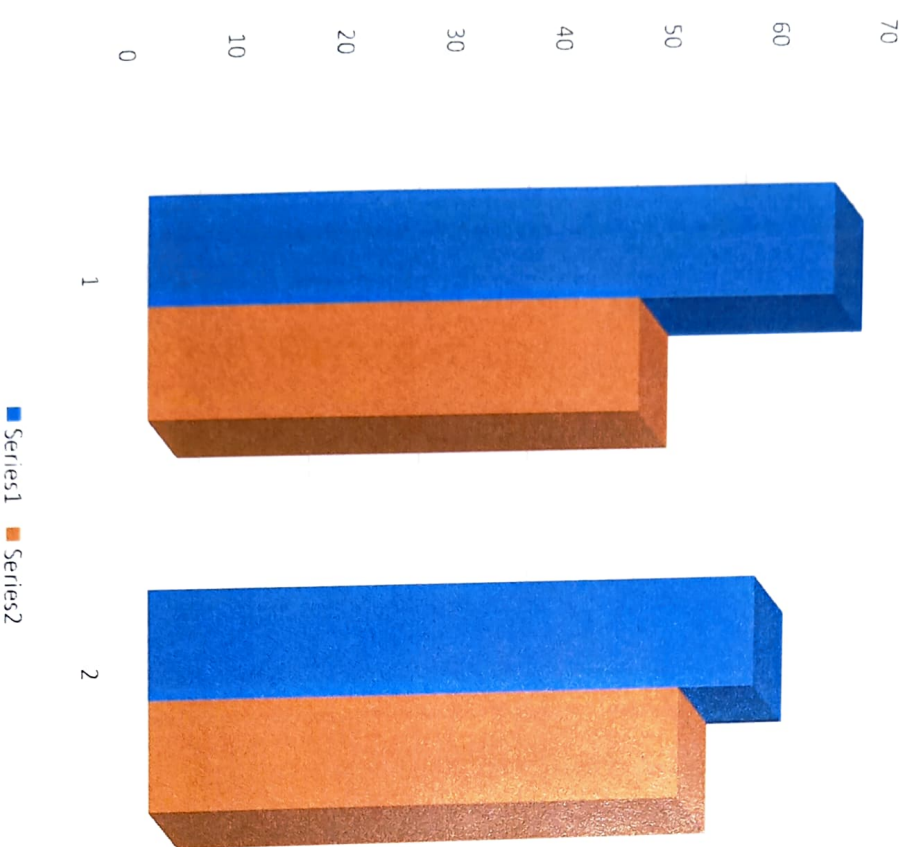

second,third & fourth semester result
Summer-2024

First, Second & Third Semester – Winter 2023

The Winter 2023 results revealed a notable decline, particularly in the Third semester, which significantly affected the overall academic performance for the year. This decline highlighted the necessity for immediate academic interventions.

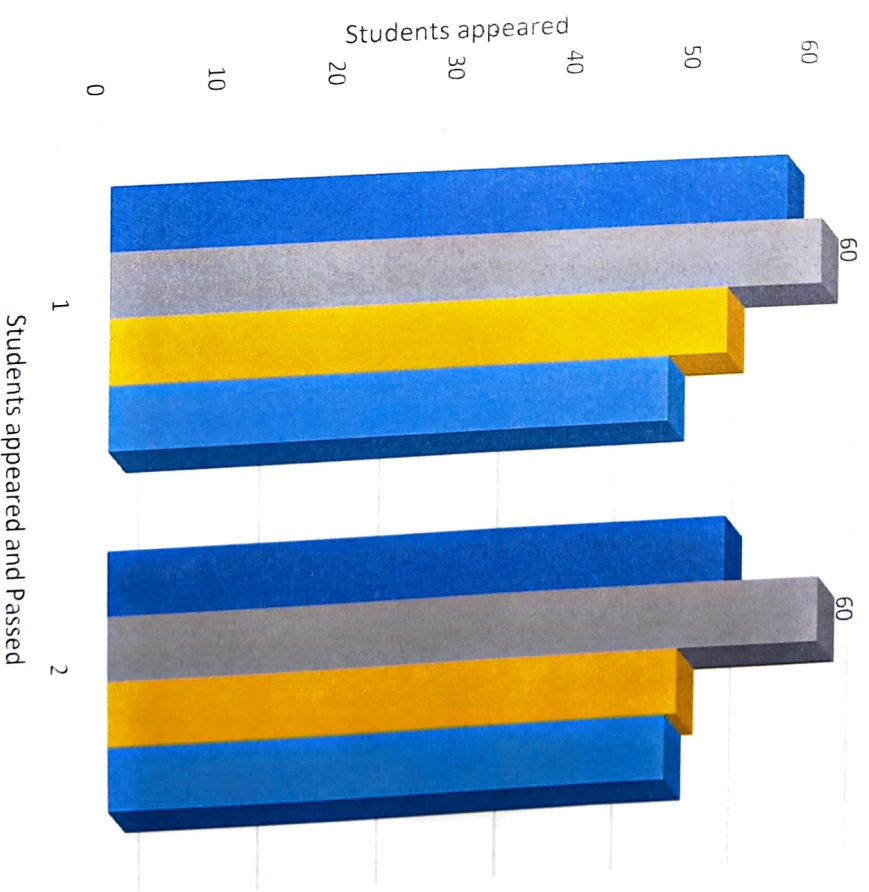

First & second semester result summer-2023

Second, Third & Fourth Semester – Summer 2024

A marked improvement is evident in Summer 2024 across all semesters. The gap between students appeared and passed narrowed considerably, indicating the positive impact of remedial classes, mentoring, and continuous internal assessment monitoring.
